

2022 NPTU “Training the Trainer” Online Program

(For NPTU partner universities in the South East Asia region)

Date: April 23~June 25, 2022

The objective of this “Training the Trainer” program is to expand the global education vision of university faculty members of NPTU partner universities in the South East Asia region by sharing experiences and exchanging knowledge.

The “Training the Trainer” is a 50-hour online program lasting for two months on Saturdays (April 23 ~ June 25, 2022). Within this program, the participants will have a better idea with current higher education in Taiwan, gain new pedagogical skills and techniques for online teaching, and learn more about the policy and practices of EMI (English as a Medium of Instruction) at University locally and globally.

Topics for this program include: Experimental Education in Taiwan, Curriculum Reform in Taiwan, Critical Thinking and Narrative Inquiry in Teacher Education, Board Game Learning Theory and Practice, Practical Chinese Learning and Online Teaching Techniques.

This is a great opportunity to empower ourselves as educators to re-equip and upgrade for the new century. Join us to make teaching and learning beyond the nations, languages and borders.
